2016 Ray Tilbrook IOM Memorial Regatta

Written by Denton Roberts 8th October

Ten skippers fronted for the afternoon sailing, joining with the ten raters who started their race day at 10.30 am sailing for their respective Ray Tilbrook Memorial Trophies. Winds from the NW, WNW had sailing from the southern car park.

The weather was top end of A rigs for both fleets at times, Roger Paul acted as PRO for the day. Rob Mews sailed very well throughout the afternoon to a well deserved win from Edgar only two points behind

2011 Ray Tillbrook IOM Memorial

Written by Chris Woods Saturday 8th October

The IOM's raced today for the Ray Tillbrook Memorial in light shifty sou westerley winds which tested everyones patience. Rob Patton with his new boat had a very good afternoon with a close win from Ian Ritchie also with his new boat to finish just .5 of a point behind him. with Loyd Cole finishing third. Welcome to David Bedford who had his first afternoon at PRSC.

2009 Ray Tilbrook IOM Memorial

Written by Chris Woods Sat 3rd October

A very pleasant spring afternoon with the usual Jackadder shifts for the sailing of the inaugural Denton Roberts sponsored IOM Ray Tilbrook Memeorial Trophy .

Bob Paton again set up the bouys on the water and after "what's the course" was explained to all sailing commenced.

11 starters with some close racing but Max showed the way with boat speed and consistent sailing .

Many thanks to Rod Moss for overall organisation of the IOM's and doing the final tallies of the days racing.
